

6/4 - 714

GLYNDON PARK - After 1906 - Temperance Avenue. Row of 13 frame houses built by members of the Glyndon Park Chautauqua Association after acquiring half the acreage of the Prohibition Camp Meeting Association, which dated to 1890. Houses converted to year-round dwellings. Small frame houses in vernacular style. Clapboard outer walls, gable roofs, all in good condition. Owner: Multiple individual owners.